Aransas County Constables & Sheriff's Office,

Due to the coronavirus disease (COVID-19), Justice Courts, Pcts 1 & 2, issue the following Directive, effective March 20, 2020:

- Stay execution on the following Writs, Writs of Possession and Writs of Execution.
- All service of process for Eviction cases are stayed until further notice.
- Constables will continue to serve the following, deemed as "Essential Court Proceedings": Writ of Reentry, Writ of Retrieval and Repair and Remedy cases.
- Constables and Private Process Servers will continue to serve Civil cases (Small Claim and Debt Claim) pursuant to 501.2 Alternative Service of Citation (Civil) and 509.4 Alternative Service of Citation (Repair and Remedy); however, all such alternative service requires that the individual served and address location is properly verified within the alternative service request.
 - All writs currently outstanding are to be returned to the Court. All currently outstanding civil citations should be returned with a request for alternative service.
- Emergency Mental Detention Warrants will continue to be processed as normal with Justice Courts, Pcts 1 & 2 and the Aransas County Sheriff's Office.

As circumstances change, we may issue further directives.
