How to handle Civil Claims:

You have made it to the civil portion of our website. Under this section, you will find the forms that you need in order to pursue your civil case. We have provided self-help instructions for plaintiffs and defendants dealing with small claims, debt claims, and evictions. You will also find the forms for any Writs, Motions, or Petitions that you may need to file, as well as the form for an Occupational Driver's License. You can also find civil fee information, out of county service fee information, and forms in Spanish in this section. All fees will be paid and delivered to JP2, but any out of service fees will need to be paid separately as payable to that county (separate money order or cashier's check).
